

School Health ECHO

FREE CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS OFFERED

Starting Tuesday, September 2nd, 2025

1ST TUESDAY OF EVERY MONTH

2:30–3:30 PM (AKT)

ONLINE via ZOOM

Sep '25 - May '26

The School Health ECHO is a virtual learning network intended for professionals in the education setting to interface with a team of medical and education experts in Alaska.

Join us to discuss key issues affecting school communities--from attendance strategies and family engagement to food insecurity, vaping and sleep---with an emphasis on practical strategies and culturally relevant practices.

Each session includes a brief presentation followed by Q&A, and guided discussion or case presentation as an integral part of the learning experience.

This series is intended for Teachers, School Nurses, Social Workers, Medical Providers, Registered Nurses, Public Health Officials, School Administrators, School Counselors and Therapists, All Professionals in the Education Setting.
